

Blues Brothers Review

The Blues Roulette Blues Brothers Review is a ten piece big band that performs the music of the Blues Brothers, as well as other classic blues and soul tunes. The band features some of Melbourne's best known blues artists, and is known for its high energy performances and tight arrangements.

Audience & Marketing Notes

For longtime fans of the Blues Brothers, their children and grandchildren who are seeing and experiencing the movie and live music for the very first time. This is a high energy show that honours the vibe and soul of the movie.

Vincent Bradley, performing as a Blues Brother has been a life-long fan himself, has his own Blues Mobile and was an extra in the Blues Brothers 2000 movie!

Selling Points

- This show is a lively and fun tribute to a cultural touchstone that speaks to lovers of Soul, Funk, Rhythm & Blues and Gospel music.
- The musicians performing the Blues Brothers Review are some of the finest Blues and R&B musicians who are regularly working the Melbourne live music scene.
- The show celebrates and showcases the movie and its music without being cheesy or schmaltzy. It's an honest and loving tribute to a classic.

Community Engagement

For venues within driving distance (and if the old Blues Mobile can make it), we can bring a genuine 1974 Dodge Monaco Blues Brothers tribute car for photos and selfies before and after the show.
